

Black-crowned Palm-Tanager Phaenicophilus palmarum

FEATHERY FACTS

The black on its head gives this bird its name, but it is also gray, white and yellow. It is only found on the island of Hispaniola. This bird lives all over the island in any habitats with trees. Its nickname in Spanish is Quatro Ojos which means "Four Eyes". Can you see how it got this nickname?

