

Yellow-Rumped Warbler Word Scramble

Rearrange the letters below to reveal the words about our bird of the day.

EBTTUBUTR

The nickname given to this bird because of the colour of its rump

YMLERT

The name of the subspecies that spends the winter in the Caribbean

RONMEEVB

The month when most Yellow-Rumped Warblers arrive in the Caribbean

AADCNA

A country where this species breeds

BKCAL

The colour of the face-mask the males have

LDNOSDOWA

A habitat where you might find Yellow-Rumped Warblers in the Caribbean

ERBIESR

Something this species eats, that means it can spend the winter further north

ORMNAIGIT

The name for the journey this species (and many other birds) make to their winter areas

LLFA

The time of year when migrant birds start arriving in the Caribbean

RRELAWB

The group of species this birds belongs to

ISCTSEN

Something else this species eats

SAAMAHB

On of the Caribbean countries where this species can be found in the winter

Photo by Stephen Buckingham