

All About Warblers

Can you work out the answers to complete this crossword? All the clues are about migratory warblers

Across

4. Female American Redstarts are not red, instead they have patches of this colour on their wings & tail
5. North American country where many warblers breed
6. Male American Redstarts are orangey red and this other colour
8. A blue-gray and yellow warbler that breeds in Jack Pine forests in the US & came close to going extinct
9. This Warblers habit of spending time feeding the ground give it its local name 'Reinita Pica Tierra' in Puerto Rico (two words with a space)
12. The entire population of this warbler spends the winter either in the Caribbean or Florida
14. The journey many warblers make south to the Caribbean in Fall & North back to breeding areas in Spring
16. Something many migratory warblers like to eat
18. The nickname given to the Yellow-rumped Warbler
19. Caribbean country where nearly all Kirtland's Warblers spend winter

Down

1. This bird looks like & is named as a thrush but it is a warbler! (two words with a space)
2. A wetland habitat in the Caribbean where many different warblers can be found in winter
3. This warbler can be recognised from the distinctive black-and-white pattern on its tail
7. Time of year when migratory warblers arrive in the Caribbean
10. A Yellow coloured warbler- the black plumage on the head gives it its name.
11. Number of days in a row that Blackpoll Warblers can keep flying non-stop on migration
13. Yellow-rumped Warblers eat these, meaning they can spend winter further north
15. Time of day when many warblers migrate, making them vulnerable to collisions with buildings & other man-made structures
17. Cape May Warblers feed on this and have a specialised tongue to drink it through